

Battle Memorial Halls

81 High Street, Battle, TN33 0GF

www.battlememorialhall.co.uk T: 01424 772044

 <https://www.facebook.com/battlememorialhall>

Dear Reader

Welcome to the second official Battle Memorial Hall Newsletter. In this publication we will be updating regular hall users with news and information about their clubs and groups, upcoming events and local town news.

Regular user groups are welcome to submit articles to the Hall Manager by emailing battlememorialhall@talktalkbusiness.net.

Coming to Battle this January – School of Rock

School of Rock

For those about to Rock, we salute you!

Music Promoter Alan King will be bringing Battle's own School of Rock to the Halls from December – January. Alan promises, "An Amazing intensive music experience with tutors who have worked with Bob Dylan, Pink Floyd,

The Who, David Bowie, Mark Knopfler, Tom Petty and many more rock & roll icons". Aspiring rockers will get the opportunity to play rock tracks, write rock music and perform in a real rock gig on any of the rock instruments; Vocals, Guitar, Bass, Drums, Keyboards and Brass.

The dates for the workshop are 28, 29 and 30 December with the final gig being held on 3 January. See the official website for more details: <http://schoolofrock1066.wix.com/battle>

Upcoming Events

10 December

Late Night Shopping

12 December

Battel Bonfire Boyes
Fundraising Event

13 December

Battle Town Band Concert

17 December

National Blood Service donation sessions (book appt. at www.blood.co.uk)

18 – 20 December

Jack and the Beanstalk
Pantomime

28, 29, 30 December & 3 January

School of Rock

More News from the Halls...

BLOG's performance of The Mikado – a triumph!

BLOG's Gilbert and Sullivan Spectacular was a huge success this year; a colourful, vibrant and hilarious interpretation of the classic musical. The directors and performers managed to successfully conglomerate modernity, 1920s glam and the Japanese theme seamlessly. They also raised over £800 for Charity! BLOG's next show will be Sweet Charity, watch this space for details!

Misty Moon Presents...A Day In The Lives Of Frankie Abbott - A Comedy By David Barry – 28 April 2016

What happens when a fantasist with a fading memory recalls events from years ago? Frankie Abbott now in a care home, is helped by Marion, one of the carers, to remember. The fun starts as the mother-smothered, big talking buffoon reverts to a past littered with guns, girls and gangsters.

A comedy with David Barry from "Please Sir" and "The Fenn Street Gang" and Linda Regan from "Hi-De-Hi"

The performance will be followed by a Q&A session.

17 December – National Blood Service at the Halls -

Please sign up for your appointment on www.blood.co.uk – Every drop helps. Did you know by donating blood once, you could save the lives of up to three people? The National Blood Service will be at the Halls from 13:30 – 16:00 and 17:00 – 19:30

Community Cinema Showings

27 January – Love and Mercy

24 February – Mr Holmes

Tickets available from the Halls Office, the old Post Office and Spoilt Rotten.

Tickets 50p + suggested donation of £3

In the Community

Thursday 10 December – Gala Night in battle

Shops open until 9:00pm

Free Parking in the Abbey Car Park from 6:00pm

Santa in the Almonry from 6:00pm

Entertainment from a range of local choirs and the Salvation Army Band

St Mary's and the Baptist Church open

Christmas Craft Fair at the Halls

Battle Museum open and free of charge

Current Main Hall Availability:

Monday AM (excluding first Monday of the Month), Wednesday AM, Thursday PM, Friday PM: Contact the Hall Manager if you would like to make a regular booking.