Dear Reader

Welcome to the fourth official Battle Memorial Hall Newsletter. In this publication we will be updating regular hall users with news and information about their clubs and groups, upcoming events and local town news.

Regular user groups are welcome to submit articles to the Hall Manager by emailing battlememorialhall@talktalkbusiness.net.

Changes to Halls Tariff from 1 April 2016

The Halls' Committee has recently reviewed its charging arrangements and new hire fees will be introduced with effect from 1st April 2016.

The new charges will apply to all bookings made on or after 1st April 2016. Any bookings made before that date will be honoured at the old rate for a period of 6 months i.e. until 30th September 2016.

For more information on the changes to Hire charges please visit our website page

ELF receives funding for new organisation

ELF (Every Last Friday) have received significant funding from the Arts Council of England. They are using the funds to set up a new organisation called "Streets of Battle". They will be running a selection of street art, theatre and comedy in Battle throughout March, April and May. To launch the organisation, ELF have planned a free launch gig with band "Blair and Friends" on Friday 25th March at 6:30pm.

Community Cinema Showings
